

AIRBORNE RECONNAISSANCE SQUADRON

(RECONNAISSANCE INFANTRY COMPANY)

For Market-Garden, the 1st Airborne Reconnaissance Squadron was divided between the Arnhem Bridge coup-de-main force (HQ, 'C' and 'D' Troops, with a half troop of engineers from the 9th Field Company) and the rest of the squadron which was retained as a divisional reserve and ultimately used to defend a section of the Oosterbeek perimeter. This list allows airborne players an alternate force for reconnaissance missions or to field the entire squadron as an interesting "what if" option.
